

Arnab Goswami arrested in 2-year-old suicide case

FIR registered against wife, son and 2 others for allegedly assaulting a cop

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, 4 November

Police on Wednesday arrested Republic TV Editor-in-Chief Arnab Goswami for allegedly abetting the suicide of a 53-year-old interior designer in 2018, a police official said.

The official said a team of Alibaug police picked up Goswami from his Lower Parel house in the morning. Goswami, who was seen being pushed into the police van, claimed he was assaulted by police at his home, before being taken away.

Mumbai Police also registered an FIR against Goswami, his wife, son and two others for allegedly assaulting a police official.

"Alibaug police arrested Goswami under sections 306 (abetment of suicide), and 34 (acts done by persons in furtherance of common intention) of the Indian Penal Code.

This (arrest) pertains to the 2018 case of a man and his mother committing suicide. We have evidence (against Goswami)," the police official said.

"When we gave the intimation (of arrest) to Goswami's wife, she tore up the paper," he added.

The architect and his mother committed suicide over alleged non-payment of dues by Republic TV, police said.

In May this year, Maharashtra Home Minister Anil Deshmukh announced he has ordered a fresh probe in the case after a complaint by Adnya Naik, daughter of the architect Anvay Naik.

Deshmukh said Adnya alleged that the Alibaug police had not investigated the alleged non-payment of dues from Goswami's channel, which she claimed drove her father and grandmother to suicide in May 2018.

Police said Goswami was taken to Alibaug in Raigad district in connection with the suicide case. While in the police van, Goswami was seen claiming that police assaulted him and his son and he was also not allowed to meet his in-laws.

Police said that in a suicide note, Anvay Naik, who owned Concorde Designs, had claimed that he was ending his life due to non-payment of his dues by Goswami, Feroz Shaikh of IcastX/Skimedia and Nitesh Sarda of Smartworks.

Police said that as per the note, the three firms owed Naiks company ₹83 lakh, ₹4 crore and ₹55 lakh respectively.

Police said the two others named in the suicide note have also been arrested.

Responding to the claim on non-payment of dues, Republic TV had in a statement said the entire amount owed to Concorde had been paid.

Meanwhile, senior BJP leaders reacted strongly to the police action against Goswami.

Termining the Goswami's arrest as a "blatant misuse of state power", Union Home Minister Amit Shah said the "attack on free press must be and will be opposed".

The home minister also slammed the opposition parties, saying Congress and its allies have "shamed democracy" and that the incident "reminds us of Emergency".

In a tweet, Shah said, "Congress and its allies have shamed democracy once again. Blatant misuse of state power against Republic TV & Arnab Goswami is an attack on individual freedom and the 4th pillar of democracy."

"It reminds us of the Emergency. This attack on free press must be and WILL BE OPPOSED," he tweeted.

"The way Goswami was arrested shows the mentality of Congress party and Maharashtra Government. It is a big blow to the principles of democracy and journalism. I condemn it," BJP president J P Nadra said.

Information and Broadcasting Minister Prakash Javadekar described it as "an attack on press freedom" in Maharashtra and said it reminded of the "Emergency days".

Army chief Naravane begins 3-day visit to Nepal

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Kathmandu, 4 November

Army chief Gen MM Naravane arrived in Nepal on Wednesday on a three-day crucial visit that is largely aimed at resetting the bilateral ties that came under severe strain following a bitter border row between the two countries. Gen Naravane is visiting Nepal at the official invitation of Nepal

Army chief Gen Purna Chandra Thapa.

He was accompanied by his wife Veena Naravane, who is the chairperson of the Army Wives Welfare Association (AWWA) of the Indian Army. They were received by the Chief of General Staff, Lt Gen Prabhu Ram upon arrival at the Tribhuvan International Airport around noon.

"The Nepali Army believes that exchange of such high-level visits and continuation of tradition helps in strengthening relations between the two armies, contributing to enhancing the relationship between the two countries," reads a statement issued by the Nepal Army.

Gen Naravane on Tuesday said he was looking forward to the visit and exuded confidence that it will go a long way in strengthening the "bonds of friendship" between the armies of the two countries.

Without divulging the amount of proceeds, a source said the probe focused on the money trail of the loan amount sanctioned to Videocon Group, a part of which went to Deepak Kochhar's companies.

"Six loans worth ₹1,875 crore were sanctioned to Videocon Group and companies associated with it between June 2009 and October 2011 and this was allegedly in violation of the policies of ICICI Bank. The evidence in this regard has been submitted to the court, and is also part of the prosecution complaint," said the source.

In January, the probe agency had provisionally attached the assets of the Kochhar family, including a plush South Mumbai apartment (valued at ₹76 crore), as proceeds of crime.

After the attachment of property, the probe agency typically gets 180 days to file a prosecution complaint and this period ended in August. The main reason for the delay was the agency's inability to confirm the attachment of the said property. After Deepak Kochhar's arrest, the agency got a fresh deadline.

During his custody, Deepak Kochhar had moved the Delhi High Court and sought quashing of the money laundering case, and also called his arrest illegal.

He claimed he had cooperated with the investigation and was constrained in furnishing information sought by the ED due to Covid-19-related restrictions. During his custody, he even tested positive.

The probe agency had alleged that Dhoot had invested in NuPower through his firm Supreme Energy in a quid pro quo for the loans cleared by ICICI Bank after Chanda Kochhar took over as the bank's CEO on May 1, 2009.

However, Deepak Kochhar has maintained that the funds received by NuPower from Videocon Industries had no connection with the private lender sanctioning the loans around the same time.

The ED's money-laundering case is based on a first information report filed by the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) against the Kochhars, Dhoot, and others. The CBI is yet to file a charge sheet in the case.

The CBI has accused the former bank chief of alleged quid pro quo through her husband. It also alleged that the ownership of NuPower and Supreme Energy changed hands through a complex web of shared transactions between Deepak Kochhar and Dhoot.

The CBI had said ICICI Bank sanctioned credit facilities of ₹3,250 crore to several firms belonging to Videocon Group, such as Trend Electronics and Century Appliances, in violation of the Banking Regulation Act, Reserve Bank of India rules, and the bank's credit policy.

has killed more than 231,000 people in the United States and left millions more jobless, amid a political climate marked by racial tensions and bitter polarisation.

The trio of "blue wall" states that unexpectedly sent Trump to the White House in 2016 -- Michigan, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin -- remained too close to call. Biden held a slight lead in Nevada, where officials said they would not update the count until Thursday.

Two Southern states, Georgia and North Carolina, were also still in play; Trump held leads in both. A win for Biden in either one would narrow Trump's chances considerably.

Biden's victory in Arizona -- both Fox News and the Associated Press projected he would win the state -- gave him multiple pathways to the White House.

If he holds onto Nevada, he could secure the presidency by winning the Midwestern states of Wisconsin and Michigan, where he held narrow leads on Wednesday, even if he loses Pennsylvania.

Trump's most likely path goes through Pennsylvania; if he wins that state, he would secure re-election if he also held onto the Southern states and won at least one Midwestern state.

World leaders were in limbo as they waited for clearer results, with most avoiding weighing in amid the uncertainty.

In global markets, investors moved to price a greater chance of US policy gridlock. Technology stocks pushed Wall Street's major averages higher on Wednesday as the race for the White House went down to the wire, although investors remained worried about the prospect of a contested result.

Biden leads 224 to 213 over Trump in the Electoral College vote count, according to Edison Research.

Biden's hopes of a decisive early victory were dashed on Tuesday evening when Trump won the battlegrounds of Florida, Ohio and Texas.

"This is a major fraud on our nation. We want the law to be used in a proper manner. So we'll be going to the US Supreme Court. We want all voting to stop."

Trump provided no evidence to back up his claim of fraud and did not explain how he would fight the results at the Supreme Court, which does not hear direct challenges.

Voting concluded as scheduled on Tuesday night, but many states routinely take days to finish counting ballots. Huge numbers of people voted by mail because of the pandemic, making it likely the count will take longer than usual.
